October 2021

I remember when I was in kindergarten, we would each take turns sharing something with the class, and my mother taught me to say, "Boys and girls, I have this to share with you today." And I would show something that was fun or important to me, or something that we got on vacation, to the other children. It was a way of sharing who I was and what I had with others.

Sharing is one of the early lessons we learn – share your toys! And it is a gift that we hopefully develop over our lives.

But our world has been upended over the last year, and we are more hesitant to share, because of COVID. We have always been careful to not share our colds or chicken pox, but this is new, for it has changed our feelings about being together.

We are hesitant to gather, we look at others as possible danger, we keep to ourselves. We hold back handshakes and hugs. We have put up invisible (or plexiglass!) walls between us. We step back in caution and fear.

I remember a professor I had in nursing school. She was wonderful, a good teacher and encourager, but she often invaded personal space during conversation. It was only by a few inches and I'm sure for her it was just part of being in a one-on-one conversation. But often one felt like stepping back a few inches, that we were too close for comfort.

Now, our personal space has become 6 or more feet. We don't feel comfortable sharing our space or our air or touching or handling things others touch. We are in an atmosphere of withdrawing, right now when there is a world that needs touch and care and comfort. It's all around us, the virus sure, but also the people. We have quite a challenge of being disciples and being the church, for all those that need to experience and hear the good news that we have.

Certainly, let's be careful, but there is some risk in being followers of Jesus, and we need to weigh that as we are faithful as God's people. God has been so faithful to us.

Our Holy Communion Offering is for World Communion Sunday
 Sunday, October 3, 2021

World Communion Sunday is one of the six special offering Sundays in our denomination. Our special offerings on World Communion Sunday provide "leadership scholarships" for national & international UMC graduate students; undergraduate "ethnic scholarships" for national and international UMC students within the U.S.; and "ethnic in-service training (non-degree)" scholarships for UMC racial and ethnic students from around the world. In other words, we provide financial support for the education of United Methodist student leaders who would otherwise struggle to find the finances they need. We are given an opportunity to support education, just as John Wesley did, and just as Methodists have always done!

United Methodist Men's Pork Butts Sale on October 22 and 23 from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. Please contact Jim Cospers 423-834-2798, Tim Holt 423-596-1678 or the church office 706-866-2626 if you would like to order pork butts. Cost is $40.00 each. Deadline to order is Sunday, October 17, 2021.

The Blessing of Giving

*"Blessed is he who has regard for the weak; the Lord delivers him in times of trouble. The Lord will protect him and preserve his life; he will bless him in the land and not surrender him to the desire of his foes."
 Psalm 41:1-2*

This passage deals with where our hearts are for the many needs among God's people, and the blessings in store for those who use their time, talents, or gifts to minister to those in need. John 13:35 says, "By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another." We are the disciples of today.

Paul echoes the comments of the Psalmist when in Galatians 6:9-10 he calls, "Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers". Christ calls us to give ourselves away in ministry to others - this is a mark of a healthy Christ-follower.

There are many instances in Scripture where Jesus dropped what He was doing to restore someone. In this manner, we should be striving to be more like Jesus and to live and work as parts of the Body of Christ.

May we respond to His call and example.

More like the Master I would ever be,
 More of His meekness, more humility;
 More zeal to labor, more courage to be true,
 More consecration for work He bids me do.

Heavenly Father,
when your only begotten Son Jesus Christ
rose from the dead,
he commissioned his followers
to “go and make disciples of all nations” and you remind us that through our Baptism
we are made sharers in the mission of the Church.
Empower us by the gifts of the Holy Spirit
to be courageous and zealous in bearing witness to the Gospel, so that the mission entrusted to the Church,
which is still very far from completion,
may find new and efficacious expressions that bring life and light to the world.
Help us make it possible for all peoples to experience the saving love
and mercy of Jesus Christ,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
One God, forever and ever.
Amen

Nicaragua Update

After the long delays in travel to Nicaragua, finally we have been able to visit our mission areas on a limited basis. Travel there is still very difficult with many of the covid restrictions still in place for international travel. We, at Bienestar Nicaragua, are pleased to report that we are and have been operating a feeding center for children at La Paz Centro with great success. The combined efforts of Bienestar and Twelve Churches are supporting the program that feeds 35 children a nutritious, healthy lunch 5 days a week, every week. We visited this center as well as numerous other feeding centers around Leon, Nicaragua with the possibilities of supporting more children’s feeding centers in the future. It is all possible thanks to the generous donations from you. With the combined efforts of our organizations, approximately 500 children are being fed every day, 5 days a week. A few pictures are attached to show what is happening at our La Paz Centro center which is administered by Pastor
Domingo Estrada at the church.

Next Men's Breakfast
Sunday, October 31, 2021
8:00 a.m. in Heritage Hall

BLESS Sacks is a self-funded program that provides a weekend supplement to local students who receive free or reduced lunches in the Catoosa County School System. Last school year we packed over 3,000 sacks for Boynton Elementary, Heritage Middle, and Performance Learning Center. Come help us pack during an After Supper event at 6:45 p.m. each month.

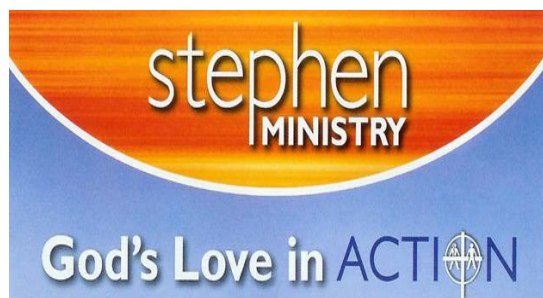

We had a great time at our September meeting. Lisa Huskey brought delicious snacks for us to enjoy while we discussed upcoming events.

Continuing with our monthly World Thank Offering, October is putting in $.50 for each computer you have access to. Reminder, our September offering was for each child you love put in $.10.

Our meetings are held the third Tuesday of each month. This is great time for fellowship with others. Find out what is going on in everyone's life. We start at 7:00 p.m.

Blessings,
